

Dear Friends!

So good to be back home in Clovis!! I heard Fr. Imbarrato did a nice job while I was gone--he is such a passionate priest and fearless advocate of all things pro-life.

Just a quick note for this week. ATTENTION ALSO ALL ADULTS NEEDING CONFIRMATION.

One of the things that measures the health of any parish is the number of converts the parish receives into the Church, and how many people the parish brings back into the full sacramental practice of their faith.

To this end we are now taking registrations for RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults).

It is very important to register now, because the classes start on August 26.

RCIA is for all adults converting to the Catholic faith and is also for all adult Catholics needing still any of their sacraments. Thus, RCIA is also for adult Catholics who are baptized but yet have not received the sacrament of Confirmation.

We are very blessed here to have a wonderful and absolutely first-rate RCIA instructor, Mr. Luis Campos. The class will be fantastic and it will be an awesome initiation (as the name suggests) into the Catholic faith and life. RCIA will meet every Wednesday night starting at 6:30 sharp.

Please register now. Help those who are needing this to get registered. If you miss this, you will have to wait for next year (because RCIA is a whole program but which happens only once a year, culminating at the Easter Vigil with reception of sacraments). Please, we do not want to wait or put this off. We don't want you or your loved one to have to wait a whole other year.

Registrations for RCIA are after all Sunday Masses, and also through the parish office.

God bless you and have a great week!
