Dear Friends!

We have come to the heart of Lent. This week we have an extraordinary moment of grace available, and the perfect chance to really go forward or to perhaps re-boot and get going again strong in your faith and Lenten practices.

This week is the parish mission. If you enjoyed the Advent Mission with Fr. Jewel you will enjoy this even more. The speaker is the best there is: Msgr. Doug Raun.

Starting this Monday (March 7) at 7pm--but get there early because it will be crowded!--at Our Lady of Guadalupe is the parish mission.

It's an event for all of Clovis, and for both of our parishes.

To facilitate people going, we will not have Mass or confessions here at Sacred Heart this Monday-Thursday, i.e. the time of the mission. Every night go over there to OLG for Mass and confessions and to hear an awesome mission presentation.

Now in terms of preaching, as I mentioned, no one is better than Msgr. Raun.

At a priest's first Mass, traditionally that priest asks someone other than himself to preach the homily. It is considered a great honor to preach the homily at another priest's first Mass because the newly-ordained could ask anyone to preach and he chose specifically you.

Well, for my first Mass I asked Msgr. Raun to preach. That action on my part proves that I really believe what I said above. Namely, that in terms of preaching, you simply cannot do better than Msgr. Raun! We are very blessed to have him coming here to preach the Lenten mission for our Clovis parishes.

So please go to the mission. Enjoy! Get re-inspired to live out well the rest of your Lent going towards holy week.

Pray for me too. I am away to preach a Lenten mission myself this week. Pray that I can take something out of Msgr. Raun's book and do a good job.

Yours in Christ,
Fr Simon

P.S. After the mission, everything here will resume as normal starting on Friday, March 11, with confessions at 4:30PM, Mass at 5:30PM, Stations of the Cross at 6:30 and our wonderful Lenten meal together right after the Stations. See you there!

NEXT WEEKS GOSPEL READING

John 8: 1-11

Jesus went to the Mount of Olives. But early in the morning he arrived again in the temple area, and all the people started coming to him, and he sat down and taught them. Then the scribes and the Pharisees brought a woman who had been caught in adultery and made her stand in the middle. They said to him, “Teacher, this woman was caught in the very act of committing adultery. Now in the law, Moses commanded us to stone such women. So what do you say?” They said this to test him, so that they could have some charge to bring against him. Jesus bent down and began to write on the ground with his finger. But when they continued asking him, he straightened up and said to them, “Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her.” Again he bent down and wrote on the ground. And in response, they went away one by one, beginning with the elders. So he was left alone with the woman before him. Then Jesus straightened up and said to her, “Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you?” She replied, “No one, sir.” Then Jesus said, “Neither do I condemn you. Go, and from now on do not sin any more.”
