Dear Friends,

We have come to Holy Week, the most sacred time of the whole year.

Please live this time and this week with great fervor. Please plan to attend the liturgies of the Sacred Triduum, the most solemn and beautiful liturgies of the whole year.

Holy Thursday we will have Mass at 7PM and adoration until midnight.

Good Friday we will have Stations of the Cross at 12 noon and the Liturgy of the Passion of the Lord at 3 PM.

Holy Saturday the Easter Vigil Mass, the greatest and biggest Mass of the entire year(!!!) will start at 9 PM. If you or your child is receiving any sort of sacrament, or if you are a sponsor or a godparent, you must come to the rehearsal at 2PM.

Easter Sunday morning we have Mass at 8:30 AM and 10:30 AM.

Please in your prayers follow Jesus at every step of this way, so that at each hour and each moment of Holy Week, you can accompany Him. Where is He right now? What is Jesus doing at this precise moment? To keep Him company at each step of the way from the Last Supper, to the agony in the garden, to the trial, to the carrying of the cross, to the crucifixion, to the burial, to the resurrection, is the great spiritual exercise of these days.

God bless you. May you have the best Holy Week and the most joyful Easter of your entire life.

Fr. Simon Carian
